

FINANCIAL COUNSELLING AT WOMEN'S LEGAL SERVICE NSW

Our financial counselling service helps women who have experienced family violence to regain financial control and security.

Our financial counsellor is a qualified professional who helps women to:

-  PROTECT: take steps to protect their financial safety.
-  RECOVER: deal with debts, financial hardship & entitlements.
-  EMPOWER: develop plans & goals for financial independence.

You can make a 'warm referral' to our financial counsellor

by sending an email to reception@wlsnsw.org.au with the following details:

- The client's full name, date of birth and safe contact number.
- Full name and date of birth of the other party/parties (for conflict check).
- Brief summary of the client's situation and financial difficulties.
- Indication as to whether client has consented to the referral
- Other supports that are in place

Once we have received the referral
we will contact your client to discuss the next steps

Our financial counselling service is free, independent and strictly confidential.

For more information about our financial counselling service:
wlsnsw.org.au/financial-counselling

